Becape of a Murderer.—It will be remembered that some time ago a difficulty occurred on the streets of Lexington, Ky, in which Mr. Warfield was shot and killed by a man named Brest, who was arrested. We learn that on Friday the prisoner made his escape from the jail at Lexing. The ground is, that as less than a quorum of the new Board had, previous to else indicated and the elouisville rail took, Ky, took the train and arrived at Columbia in time to take the Priday evening boat to Cine must, upon which be the local south passage to Madison.
